

Politics and Fireworks

Everybody knows there is a lot of fireworks in politics, but how many know that a whole lot of politics can be put into fireworks too? The Thearle-Duffield Fireworks Display Company of Chicago of pyrotechnical experts has a side-splitting fireworks feature which it calls "Grooming the Political Animals" and it comes in part just now, when a National political campaign—the great quadrennial sweeps takes to the White House—is on.

And the beauty of this fireworks display is that, no matter what your party beliefs and affiliations may be it will bring you a laugh and cause no offense. Its the best kind of American humor in fireworks. In its production our old friends, the G. O. P. elephant marches across the entire exhibition field in search of exercise, followed by the Democratic donkey with tail up and ears wagging. You applaud according to the way you believe—and you will laugh and applaud. The Thearle-Duffield Fireworks Company will present its massive and gorgeous exhibitions at the

CLEAN HOUSE AT WASHINGTON

The people will get no lower taxes until they clean house in Washington and in their state governments.

There are thousands of useless employees on the payrolls—with an army of 100,000 job-holders in Washington.

Taxes will not come down 'til the people apply the scrubbing brush sapolite politically.

Instead of wasting time in speculating over the harnessing of the energy of Niagara, as it is periodically done, it might be more profitable to harness the human energy of this country and start it to producing at 100 per cent instead of squandering 200.

The employee who works with the idea that he is an important part of the business often becomes the dominating power in that business. The fellow who works with his eye on the clock invariably spends his life in punching a clock.

Parents should not fret when their children cry. The child that is "so good it never cries" is in grave danger of growing to maturity with a weak pair of lungs.

The man who counts the hours as they go never counts successes as they come.

Attorney L. R. Jones, of Kennett, passed thru this city Wednesday night enroute to St. Louis.

You're taking the right step when you switch to Spurs

YOU can't do better. After you've smoked through a pack of Spurs, you won't want to go back to other cigarettes. You'll find your old kind sort of flat and uninteresting, like last year's politics.

For Spur's good tobacco taste can't help but win you for keeps. There's rich, mellow Turkish, flavorful Burley and other home-grown tobaccos blended in a new way that brings out to the full the all-round goodness of this top-notch cigarette.

And Spurs top all—all ways. They're crimped. That means slow burn, smooth taste—no paste. The smart "brown-and-silver" package is three-fold to keep Spurs fresh and fragrant.

Twenty cents will prove that Spurs are your kind of cigarettes—top-notch quality at rock-bottom price. The sooner you try them the gladder you'll be.
